

Program ISAE Benelux online meeting

Thursday 9th December 2021

9:00 – 12:30

9:00	9:10	Intro & welcome – Lisanne Stadig, Laura Webb & Saskia Kliphuis
9:10	9:45	Keynote 1: Training of laboratory rodents used for teaching – Esther Langen
9:45	9:50	Short break
Session 1 – Hi-Tech for High Welfare
9:50	10:10	An ultra-wideband animal tracking system for monitoring range use by free-range poultry – Michael Plante-Ajah
10:10	10:30	The utility of voluntary weighing in captive group-living macaques (Macaca mulatta) – Dian Zijlmans
10:30	10:50	Brave breed and brain: Effect of hybrid and lighted incubation on fear, and consistency between fear tests – Britta Mescher
10:50	11:05	Break
11:05	11:40	Keynote 2: From welfare assessment to sustainability – Marc Bracke
Session 2 – Effective Enrichment
11:40	12:00	The effect of providing live black soldier fly larvae (Hermetia illucens) as edible enrichment on piglet behaviour around weaning – Allyson Ipema
12:00	12:20	Effects of environmental enrichment on small parrots in an Animal Assisted Intervention setting – Elizabeth Walsh
12:20	12:30	Closing – Lisanne Stadig, Laura Webb & Saskia Kliphuis