PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Barcelona-El Prat Airport is approximately 30 kilometres away from the UAB campus in Bellaterra (Cerdanyola del Vallès). Different public transportation options are available to reach to the campus from the airport, all of them passing through Barcelona city. The easiest option is combining Aerobus (Airport to Plaça Catalunya) + FGC railway (Plaça Catalunya to Universitat Autònoma).

[STEP 1: FROM BARCELONA-EL PRAT AIRPORT TO BARCELONA CITY]

By Bus (THE MOST RECOMMENDED):

Take the Aerobus from Barcelona Airport (Terminal 1 and 2) to Catalunya Square (Plaça Catalunya) in Barcelona city center. It operates 24 hours a day every 5/10 minutes. You can buy the ticket online or on the same bus (cash only) and it costs around 6 euros.

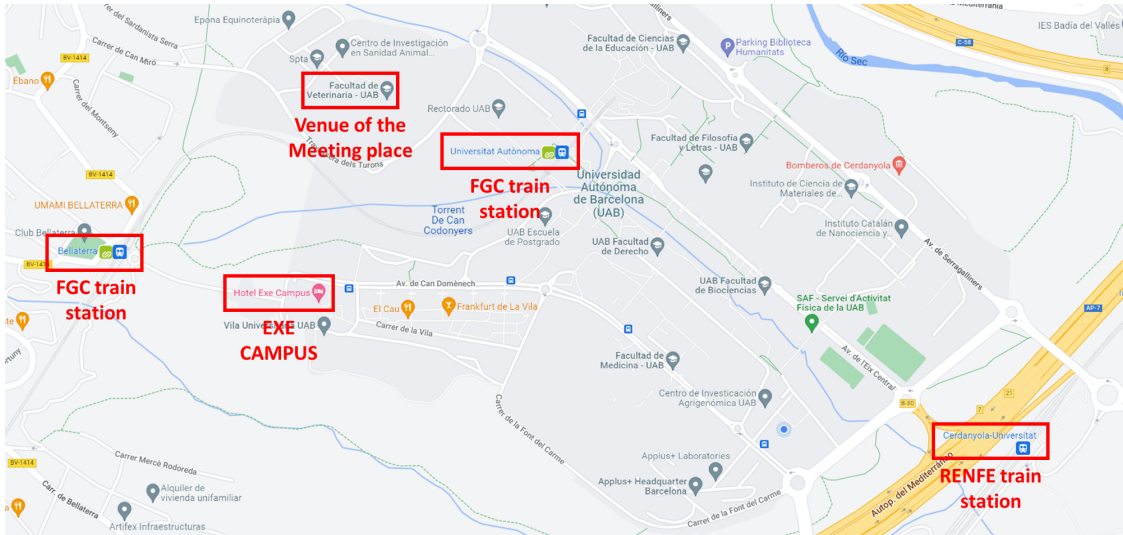

By METRO:

L9 Sud takes you from Barcelona Airport (Terminal 1 and 2) to Barcelona city. Depending on the metro station, you would need to change different metro lines to reach Plaça Catalunya (“Catalunya” metro station).

[STEP 2: FROM BARCELONA CITY TO UAB]

When you arrive at Catalunya Square (Plaça Catalunya), there are two railway options to go to UAB campus: FGC (S2/S6 line to Universitat Autònoma station) or Renfe Cercanías - Rodalies de Catalunya (R3/R4 + R7 line to Cerdanyola-Universitat station). In both cases, from Plaça Catalunya to UAB, the train ride takes about 30 to 40 minutes.

It is recommended to take the FGC railway as it arrives inside the campus, and from Universitat Autònoma station, it is a walking distance to reach the Veterinary School.

The railway operates from 5 am to 12 pm. In the rush hour, FGC railway operates every 10 minutes. Visit the webpage to check the timetable.

If you want to go directly to the Veterinary School, the FGC railway station is Universitat Autònoma. If you want to go to EXE Campus, the FGC railway station is Bellaterra. Both destinations (Veterinary School or EXE Campus) can be reached by walking in 10 minutes from the FGC stations (Universitat Autònoma or Bellaterra respectively).

FROM GIRONA-COSTA BRAVA AIRPORT TO UAB

Girona-Costa Brava Airport is approximately 100 kilometres away from Barcelona city. The company Sagales/Barcelona bus offers buses from Girona Airport to Barcelona city center. The recommended bus stop in Barcelona is "Ronda de Sant Pere 21-23", which is close to Plaça Catalunya. From Plaça Catalunya, you would need to take FGC railways to go to the UAB campus.
